

United States Air Force Band of the Golden West to perform in Sandy

The Commanders Jazz Ensemble, the 19-piece United States Air Force Band of the Golden West, stationed at Travis Air Force Base, California, will perform at 7 p.m. on Sunday, August 12 at Sandy's Main Street Park, 90 East and 8720 South.

This ensemble is considered to be one of the finest of its kind on the West Coast performing music ranging from the Big Band sound of the '40s to the jazz styles of today. Bring your blankets and chairs and come gather with your friends and neighbors for a night of good old-fashioned fun.

This group has extensively toured the western United States, has appeared on numerous radio and television shows and has performed at the famed Carnegie Hall in New York City. Over the years, Marvin Stamm, Steve Smith, Bob Hope, Walt Levinsky and other guest artists have collaborated with the band. Come enjoy this historic ensemble in historic Sandy.
